Good Shepherd Lutheran School
Wellness Policy

INTRODUCTION
Congress recognizes that schools play a critical role in promoting student health, preventing childhood obesity, and combating problems associated with poor nutrition and physical inactivity. To formalize and encourage this role, Congress passed a law (P.L. 108 - 265). Each local educational agency participating in a program authorized by the Richard B. Russell National School Lunch Act or the Child Nutrition Act of 1966, “shall establish a local school wellness policy by School Year 2006.”

The legislation also places the responsibility of developing a wellness policy at the local level, so that the individual needs of each district can be addressed. According to the requirements for the Local Wellness Policy, school districts must set goals for nutrition education, nutrition standards, physical education and activity, and other school-based activities designed to promote student wellness. Additionally, districts are required to involve a broad group of individuals in policy development and to have a plan for measuring policy implementation.

WELLNESS POLICY
At Good Shepherd Lutheran School, we desire healthy students in all aspects of their lives: spiritually, physically, emotionally, intellectually, and socially. Building nutrition knowledge and skills helps children make healthy eating and physical activity choices. To accomplish goal, Good Shepherd Lutheran School will develop this policy to encourage and educate students on the benefits of maintaining healthy choices throughout life.

NUTRITION EDUCATION GOALS
- Students in all grades, pre-K through 8 will receive nutrition education that is interactive and teaches the skill they need to adopt healthy eating behaviors.
- The message of making healthy choices will be consistent throughout the school, classrooms, lunch room, and other areas where the message can be presented.
- The curriculum for health education will include both nutrition and physical education.
- Health education and making healthy decisions will be infused as appropriate throughout the other curricula areas.
- The school will seek additional ways to present the message of healthy choices in other events sponsored by the school.
- Staff who provides nutrition education will be offered appropriate training opportunities.
- Increase awareness of the need for physical activity and healthy living both at school and at home to students, staff and families.
- Increase the use of special health programs and presenters.

- Healthy choices and nutritional food value will be a consideration in selecting school-sponsored fundraising activities. Physical activity fundraising alternatives will be considered when planning the yearly fundraising events.
