Something to Consider:

Our only power and success
comes from God.
2 Corinthians

It is God's will for you to succeed both in your spiritual life and in your daily labors. If you excel in your work but neglect your soul, you may end up with every material blessing, but find that none of it satisfies. If you are deeply spiritual but unsuccessful and struggling in your work, you will be unable to properly provide for your family. God knows that both are important. Success in one area of your life does not guarantee success in others, so always do your best and pray over every sphere of your life. God wants to bless you in every way. He wants you to succeed.

2017 Charger Challenge Update

The good news CONGRATULATIONS!! You are a winner!! And so are you! And you!

The bad news-After spending countless hours with the timing system's IT department during numerous conference calls since race day I must admit defeat. Technology has won this battle.

As you know on race day the timing system crashed (my heart almost did too).

For the past 9 weeks I have been working tireless with the IT department to retrieve each runner's race time from the backup databases. But due to a faulty cable that was connected to antenna 3 and/or a software malfunction that just is not going to happen. Apparently the cable and software that day did not work as a team. The cable signaled the software that a runner came in, but the software didn't record a time. If your timing chip was read by Antenna 0, 1 or 2 your time was recorded properly. We only lost Antenna 3 times. Since there are unrecorded finish times I have no way of knowing who actually earned the age group awards. That is why I have decided to award participation medals to everyone instead of age group medals. These medals have been ordered and should be in soon. The medals and outstanding t-shirts will be mailed within the next two weeks. I will send out another announcement when they are mailed.

Please accept my sincerest apologies. As a runner myself I understand how important finish times are. That is the reason why I have worked so diligently to try to find the missing times. However, it is time for me to admit defeat. Again I apologize for this situation and am so grateful for everyone's patience during this trying time.

If you have any questions please contact me at: ChargerChallenge@gmail.com. PS - 4th grade won the Classroom Challenge with 19 registered runners, their ice cream party will be Monday November 13th at 3pm. And as soon as the t-shirts are delivered we will announce a date for students to wear them to school.

Retreads...

5 Ways You are Ruining Your Child's Life—Arlene Pellicane

This is an article about some different ways to help parent your children. This is only a portion of the article. You can obtain a copy of the full article in the school office.

"You're mean!" "You just don't understand!" Have you ever wondered if you are doing a terrible job as a parent? We've probably all thought that at one time or another. Parenting is a tough job; often times more art than science. Yet the unpopular parenting decisions you make are most likely contributing to your child's health, not their detriment. But there are five parenting traps that may well-intentioned modern parents fall into without even knowing it.

1. Amusement as the highest priority. We don't want our children to be bored or to scream in public places.
2. Everyone's a winner. A few year's ago when my son was at a basketball camp, their team matched with a much better team. After about five minutes, they turned the scoreboard off so it wouldn't read 98:0 (or something like that!). We have done our kids a disservice by giving everyone a "participation trophy." Life doesn't work like that.
3. Feelings trump everything else. The main question these days is "How do you feel about that?" We've downplayed the power of the will to do the right thing even when your child doesn't feel like it.
4. The Bible and prayer are largely absent from everyday life. Does your child observe you reading your Bible or praying during the day.
5. Your marriage takes a backseat. Focus on your children first and your marriage second.
