Something to Consider...

Reach Out And Touch Someone

One afternoon President Abraham Lincoln found on his desk a heartrending appeal for a pardon, unsupported by the usual sheaf of letters from influential sponsors.

"What," asked the President, "has this man no friends?"

The adjutant at Lincoln's side assured him that the man hadn't a one.

"Then I will be his friend," said Lincoln. He signed the pardon.

Remember the old saying to have a friend you must be a friend.

This message is important for us all to follow!

What can you do with God's help to make this day special for everyone?

Robert Mayhew, Principal
