Kaleidoscope

This year's collection of our students' writings can be found on the front page of the school website or click here. You won't want to miss reading the insights and imaginative stories from our Preschool through Grade 8 students. They are priceless. Thank you to all our teachers for the thought provoking assignments, our talented students and a big thank you to Mrs. Robinson for organizing the collection!

8th Grade Class Trip

We wish our 8th graders a safe and fun trip. Thank you to all the parents who helped make this year's trip possible.

Teacher Highlight

Mrs. Janella Lingafelter graduated from Truman State University and has been teaching for 20 years. She has served at Good Shepherd for eight years. She knew she was meant to teach when she spent a summer in Tulsa, OK and helped ready their daughter for Kindergarten. Her favorite grade to teach is 1st grade. She enjoys helping them learn to read and seeing them improve and their excitement. "I would like for students to learn to find the joy and worth in gaining knowledge in all subjects including the ones they may find less interesting on the surface. However most of all I want them to know the love of the Lord and to trust in that love through the trials they will have in life."

Something to Consider...

The Cure!

A woman paid a visit to her doctor. She claimed to be afflicted with any number of maladies, yet a thorough exam failed to support her complaints. Tests were ordered, more exams given, but all the results showed that she was physically healthy.

So, the doctor interviewed the woman about her personal life. As he suspected, the woman's feelings of illness stemmed from her negative outlook on life. In an effort to discourage this type of behavior, the doctor spoke candidly to his patient. "Do you see these empty medicine bottles?" the doctor asked her. "I can fill them with poisons that will slowly eat away at you. Life is a lot like these empty bottles. What goes into them is determined by the outcome one wants to achieve. What would you choose?"

The woman left the room with an embarrassed look on her face. Several days later she phoned the doctor at his office. "Ah, Ms. Bernard, what seems to be the trouble today?"

"No trouble at all," she replied. "I just wanted you to know that I made a choice. I want only the best of what life has to offer." The best what life has to offer is having our roots firmly in God's Word

Robert Mayhew, Principal

The purpose of Good Shepherd Lutheran School is to provide each student with a quality Christian Education. We recognize that this begins with the premise that Jesus Christ is our Lord and Savior and in Him we have eternal life. The curriculum and all activities are developed around this premise.
