BOOK FAIR

Thank you for supporting our library at last week's book fair! With your help we will be able to continue to offer our students a useful library experience. We appreciate YOU!

CHARGER FAB FIVE AT SIUE-CARBONDALE

These young scientists presented their research at the IJAS state science fair in Carbondale last weekend.

Ava was awarded a gold for her paper presentation on Friday. On Saturday she, Calista and Marion took gold for their project presentations while Lily and Owen took silver.

Marion and Ava also received a second invitation to compete in the national Thermo Fisher Scientific Innovator Challenge along with Calista and Owen who were nominated at the Region 12 competition. Congratulations!

Something to Consider...

Trustworthy

What makes God trustworthy?

Joshua blessed Caleb son of Jephunneh and gave Hebron to him as his portion of land, because he wholeheartedly followed the Lord, the God of Israel. Joshua 14:13-14

God is trustworthy because he keeps his promise. Caleb trusted in God even when the rest of the Israelites rebelled. Caleb had to wander with the nation for those forty years of punishment, but while the others were dying off, Caleb was kept alive. When the nation finally entered the land, Caleb received his reward and he was still strong enough to fight for it! Like Caleb, trust God to keep his promises. The Bible is full of promises that relate directly to you.

Blessings

Robert Mayhew, Principal

PRAY for our Students

In Our Prayers This Week

Each week the faculty will be praying for the students and their families. Next week we will be praying for Piper M., Brayden P., Rylin R., Caroline S., Adalie T., and Isaiah W.

Please join us in prayer and thanksgiving.

The purpose of Good Shepherd Lutheran School is to provide each student with a quality Christian Education. We recognize that this begins with the premise that Jesus Christ is our Lord and Savior and in Him we have eternal life. The curriculum and all activities are developed around this premise.
