His Glory Made Known to Us

At the wedding in Cana, Jesus manifested his glory when he changed the water into wine. Seeing his glory, his disciples believed in him. The season of Epiphany teaches and makes known to us the glory of the Lord. As we ponder the miracle at Cana, we also rejoice that Jesus' glory is made known to us in Word and Sacrament. As always, we gather this weekend around these gifts, which reveal his glory to us, and by the Holy Spirit we, like the disciples, believe in him - Pastor Gray

In Our Prayers This Week

Please join us in prayer.

Something to Consider...

As we begin a new year, many people speak of fresh starts, new goals, and hopeful resolutions. As Christians, we are reminded that our greatest blessing is not found in our plans for the year ahead, but in the promise that Jesus walks with us each day.

To walk with Jesus is to walk in His Word. Through Scripture, God guides, corrects, comforts, and strengthens us. In a world filled with uncertainty, His Word remains our sure foundation. As Psalm 119:105 reminds us, "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path."

Walking with Jesus also means trusting Him in every season—both joyful and challenging. Our Lord does not promise a life free from struggle, but He does promise His presence. Jesus says in Matthew 28:20, "And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age." What comfort it is to know that we never walk alone.

At Good Shepherd, we give thanks that Jesus walks with us through Word and Sacrament, strengthening our faith and renewing us in His grace. As we move into this new year together—students, families, teachers, and staff—may we walk daily in repentance, forgiveness, love, and service, reflecting Christ's light to one another and to the world.

May the Lord bless our steps in the year ahead as we walk faithfully with Jesus.

Blessings!

Robert Mayhew, Principal

The purpose of Good Shepherd Lutheran School is to provide each student with a quality Christian Education. We recognize that this begins with the premise that Jesus Christ is our Lord and Savior and in Him we have eternal life. The curriculum and all activities are developed around this premise.
